Due to market conditions CAMI Assembly will commence a temporary layoff from March 22 to April 4, 2020.

- This notice applies to all Production and Maintenance team members
- Any Production and Maintenance team members that are required to work will be notified in writing
- All Powerhouse team members are excluded
- Any team member on an approved Leave of Absence or full week scheduled vacation during the layoff period are excluded

At this time laid off team members are scheduled to return to work on Monday April 6, 2020.

The possibility exists that this temporary layoff will be extended due to prevailing market conditions. Because of this, it is the responsibility of the laid off team member to check these sources for updates before returning to work;
