

GM-CAMI Bargaining Update #3

Unifor Local 88 members,

Your Master Bargaining Committee's negotiations with General motors are continuing. Please note that the internal deadline of Thursday, January 14, 2021 at 11:59 p.m. to reach a tentative settlement with the company has been extended.

Your patience is greatly appreciated, particularly as the union continues to work towards a settlement.

If a tentative settlement is reached, we will inform the membership as soon as possible.

The Zoom Meeting is still scheduled for Sunday January 17, 2021.

Further information about Sunday's meeting will be sent directly to members as well as instructions on the online voting process and registration, so please continue to monitor your email and this website.

The meeting will be held using the online meeting platform Zoom. We encourage all members to download the app in advance of the meeting if you have not done so already. If participating via smartphone, Android users can download the app here and Apple iOS users can download the app here..

Please stay tuned for further updates and stay safe.

In Solidarity,

Your Master Bargaining Committee
