

ONLINE EDUCATION FOR AUTO WORKERS!

The Unifor-McMaster University Labour Studies Program is designed specially for Unifor auto workers. As a Unifor member working for GM, Ford or Stellantis, you can take online education from the comfort of your own home, with fellow auto workers around the province, and work towards a university certificate. Why not try a course? No cost to our members, as fees are covered through a special funding arrangement with Unifor.

Unifor-McMaster Labour Studies Certificate Fall 2023 Course Schedule

UNIFOR 239:US Foreign Policy in Latin America 4 sessions	Does the US promote 'freedom, democracy and human rights' in Latin America? Or does it play a role in overthrowing governments, suppressing workers, and supporting corporate plunder and impoverishing the region? Thursdays, Sept 14, 21, Oct 12, 19, 5:30-8:30 pm
UNIFOR 240:Is the Cost of Living out of Control? 4 sessions	Why have housing and groceries become so expensive? Why is inflation increasing faster than wages? Who is benefiting from this and who pays the price? What are the prospects for workers fighting back? A different author will join us each session to discuss. Thursdays, Oct 26, Nov 2, 23, 30, 5:30-8:30 pm
UNIFOR 241: Corporations on the Offensive: Have Workers had Enough? 1 Session	US economist and host of 'Democracy at Work', Richard Wolff joins us to describe how corporations are attacking workers' living standards, and how many workers in the US and around the world are fighting back. What can Canadian workers take away from this? Monday, Oct 2, 5:30-8:30 pm
UNIFOR 242: UNIFOR Turns 10: Challenges, Successes, and Prospects for the future 1 session	Join us in a discussion about the 10th anniversary of the birth of UNIFOR, and assess our successes, challenges, and prospects for our future. Monday, Dec 4, 5:30-8:30 pm
