

ONLINE EDUCATION FOR UNIFOR AUTO WORKERS!

The Unifor-McMaster University Labour Studies Program is designed for Unifor auto workers. As a Unifor member working at GM, Ford or Stellantis, you can take online education from the comfort of your home, with fellow auto workers around the province, and work towards a university certificate. Why not try a course? No cost to our members, fees covered through a funding arrangement with Unifor.

Unifor-McMaster Labour Studies Certificate
Winter 2026 Course Schedule
All Courses on Thursdays, 5:30-8:30 PM
Standing Strong Together: How Autoworkers Can Build Resilience during Tariff Uncertainty 2 sessions; Jan 29, Feb 5	Feeling anxiety and pressure due to the tariff war against Canadian auto? Join us to discuss how to get through this uncertainty by learning strategies to build resilience, protect our mental health, and support each other. The course will be taught by a panel of mental health experts. Registration for this course opens Jan 5, closes Jan 23
Autoworkers Movie Night (pt. 3) 2 sessions; Feb 12,19	The documentary ‘Final Offer”, now 40 years old, follows the intense negotiations between the Canadian auto workers union and GM. We will watch the film together over two nights and discuss the relevance of the issues discussed in the film today for autoworkers. Registration for this course opens Jan 19, closes Feb 6
Who are the 1%? (pt. 2) 4 sessions, March 12, 19, April 9, 16	Is our economy controlled by the richest 1%? Do corporations have too much power? Why are our living standards declining, while CEO pay grows? Can workers fight back to win more power in the workplace and society? Registration for this course opens Feb 13, closes March 6
US Imperialism in Latin America: Corporate Exploitation, Coups, and Worker Fight Back 4 sessions; May 21, 28, June 18, 25	The recent US aggression towards Latin America is not new and predates Trump. The US has a long history of economic, political, and military imperialism in Latin America. This course will discuss this history, as well as the tradition of worker fight back against US domination in Latin America. Registration for this course opens April 27, closes May 15
